REV. MR. COOPER.

Surrendered Himself at Police Headquarters—The Demand of Presiding Elder North—What the City Attorney Says in the Matter.

Yesterday afternoon Rev. Mr. Cooper, former pastor of the Epworth M. E. church of this city, was notified by Sergeant Cowles that warrants for arresting him either here or in Norwich had been issued by City Attorney Mathewman, and Mr. Cooper thereupon surrendered himself at police headquarters. He was accompanied by his counsel, Attorney Kleiner, and Mr. Andrew Moorehead, the State street merchant, who gave $500 bonds for the appearance of the clergyman before the city court. The warrants allege indecent assault, and name F. G. States and William P. Hansen as the injured parties. The open letter of Presiding Elder Crandall J. North, asking for the investigation, is as follows:

City Attorney C. B. Mathewman: My Dear Sir: Will you permit me to address a few words to you in the interest of justice on behalf of the ministers and members of the Methodist Episcopal church and the Christian public of the city of New Haven? My reason for writing you an open letter is that the request I have to present has been used upon you in every other manner possible without avail. To make this plain I will briefly state the facts which are known to us both.

On the evening of March 9 Rev. R. T. Cooper informed me that you had made grave accusations against him, and requested me to see you. I called upon you the next day, and you stated the charges to me and gave it as your opinion that from the nature of the case they could not be proved, nor could the accused prove his innocence if a trial were held in the court. Therefore you left the matter in my hands to be presented as might seem best to the conference.

On Saturday, March 30, you called upon me and stated that you had additional evidence, and must hold an examination in your office the Monday following at 11 o'clock. You gave me assurance that the examination would be solely for the purpose of placing the matter fully before me as presiding elder. In order that it might be thoroughly investigated at the conference, which was about to convene in Stamford.

Accordingly, the examination was held at the time stated, the accused being present without counsel, and the presiding elder, who was necessarily absent, being represented by Rev. Dr. Vail. At this hearing affidavits were read and the accused made answer. Then the examination was adjourned until evening in order that the presiding elder might be present, also the witnesses in person.

Although this hearing was professedly private the whole matter was printed in the afternoon papers in such detail as to make evident that the reporters had received assistance from your office. Notwithstanding this the "private" hearing was continued in the evening. At the close you said, in response to my question, that the reporters had the affidavits after the morning hearing while you were gone to dinner.

On Tuesday I sent the accused in person to you, requesting that you send the evidence in your hands to the conference at Stamford at once. A committee was appointed Wednesday at the conference to hear your evidence, but you did not arrive till Friday, and then in response to a telegram from me.

Meanwhile Mr. Cooper had asked the conference, in view of the publicity given the matter, to leave him without appointment to a church in order that he might demand a trial in your court. This course was taken, the ecclesiastical investigation being deferred until the result of the courts should be determined.

Accordingly Mr. Cooper secured counsel, and during two months and a half has repeatedly urged upon you that you either bring him to trial or declare that you find no cause for action.

As an officer of the church charged with the duty of conducting the ecclesiastical investigation, I have waited patiently all this time, determined to do nothing to influence your action. Feeling the injustice of your course toward Mr. Cooper in keeping the matter entangled in the city attorney's office without bringing action, the ministers and members of our church have for several weeks been urging me to use my influence to have something done. Accordingly, I improved an opportunity to send a gentleman of high character and available rank in the legal profession, not connected in any way with our church, to explain to you that it is the invariable rule of our church not to proceed with an ecclesiastical investigation against a member whose case is in the hands of the civil courts until after it has been decided by them; also to urge you either to bring Mr. Cooper to trial or declare that you found no cause for action, in order that the ecclesiastical investigation might proceed.

A fortnight later this gentleman sent me word that you could not give time both to a trial in open court and to ecclesiastical investigation; that Mr. Cooper must take his choice of the two; that he could not have both. To this I responded that whether you gave him a trial or not, and whatever the result of such trial, there must be a thorough ecclesiastical investigation. Again, I urged that you no longer continue to stand between our church discipline and a minister whom you had caused by trial or without trial you should get through with Mr. Cooper.

To this you answered through the same medium that "within a very few days" you would prosecute in the city court. Nearly a week has elapsed since and you seem as far as ever from taking any action. Therefore I am constrained to say to you in this public manner that the ministers and members of the Methodist Episcopal church feel that you are submitting them to a great injustice, and they protest that you no longer take leisure while they bear the stigma that you have placed upon them by sending from your office a grave accusation against one of their ministers.

Permit me now, most respectfully, yet most firmly, to demand, in the name of the Methodist Episcopal church, that without further needless delay Mr. Cooper's case be cleared of entanglement with the city attorney's office; that you promptly prosecute the case or declare that you find no cause for a trial. After you have so done the church investigation can proceed.

SAVED MRS. RENNIE'S LIFE.

Mrs. Jennie Rennie of Virgil, N. Y., had been sick for a year or more with overwork of the gall and ulcers of the stomach. Her physician told her she could not live. Mrs. Rennie's mother had found such benefit from the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy that she persuaded her daughter to use it, which she did, with the result that it cured her of these diseases, and she says she was never as well as now.

Very respectfully,
CRANDALL J. NORTH,
Presiding Elder of New Haven District.

WHAT THE CITY ATTORNEY SAYS
City Attorney Mathewman says regarding the letter that the action of the presiding elder seemed to him entirely unwarranted, and he thought it very likely that he knew that the warrants had been issued before he gave the letter out, as he informed Mr. Kleiner, counsel for Mr. Cooper, of his action.

"But whether that is so or not," said Mr. Mathewman, "the actions of the friends of Mr. Cooper in this case have been certainly very peculiar, and I have made up my mind to go ahead with a city court investigation without further consultation with them. As you remember, the case first came to my notice when I was assistant city attorney. After I assumed the office of city attorney about the first of this month, I immediately took steps to have a hearing in the Cooper case, as I had been requested both by Mr. Cooper and his counsel. I saw Mr. Kleiner and asked him if he would be prepared to go on with a trial in the city court, and I fixed a day at which Mr. Cooper was to appear to answer to two charges of indecent assault. In the meantime I received a letter from a well known gentleman, whom Mr. North refers to in his open letter to me, in which he asked to see me about the case. I had a talk with him and he showed me a letter from Mr. North, in which Mr. North had informed him that he understood that the city attorney was about to issue a warrant for the arrest of Mr. Cooper and bring him to trial in the city court. Mr. North objected to this and wanted to know if it could not be arranged not to have the trial in a public place, but that Mr. Cooper should be tried before some ecclesiastical body. I told the party that I was unwilling to do that. That because of the attacks that had been made upon me in the case, I should prefer to have an open city court trial, nevertheless in the interests of Mr. Cooper I would consent to such a trial. I, moreover, said that I did not propose to try the case, but once, either before the ecclesiastical body or else in court, unless I thought that the ecclesiastical hearing was not a fair one, in which I should reserve my right to take judicial steps."

It was accordingly settled that there was to be an ecclesiastical hearing up to the fore part of this week when, much to my astonishment, I received word from this party that Mr. North had written him another letter, in which he said that on no account should he go into an ecclesiastical hearing until the case in the city court against Mr. Cooper had been tried or disposed of. The thing had reached that pass that Rev. Dr. Buckley, editor of the Christian Advocate and Journal, had interested himself in the case and was anxious that there should be an ecclesiastical hearing.

"After this experience I made up my mind that I should take the case entirely in my own hands, and accordingly I saw the warrant Wednesday, and notified Mr. Kleiner that if Mr. Cooper appeared in New Haven on Friday they would be served on him in accordance with his wish."

Very respectfully,
CRANDALL J. NORTH,
Presiding Elder of New Haven District.
